

University of San Diego and San Diego Miramar College
2018-2022 Core Curriculum (General Education) Articulation Agreement

The University of San Diego (USD) Faculty Assembly has approved core curriculum (general education) credit for transfer students who have attended California Community Colleges prior to attending USD. Components of USD's new core curriculum partially align with California's Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC). One IGETC approved course is required in each area, except as noted. Double counting of courses is not permitted. Please note specifications and exceptions. The effective dates of this articulation agreement are May 2018 through May 2022, subject to change in IGETC-approved courses.

(*) Courses listed in multiple areas shall be certified in one area.
